

2nd Annual North American Indigenous Food Symposium

May 30- June 1, 2007

Wanuskewin and
Travelodge Hotel/Conference Centre
Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada

The symposium will help participants increase their understanding of the Aboriginal agricultural food systems and the need to improve local food systems through traditions, education and community development. Join Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal community leaders, policy makers, and working groups identify issues, build new partnerships and create change.

Topics include:

- Aboriginal Developed Nutrition Guides
- Preventative Health
- Traditional Foods
- Farmers Markets
- Agricultural Enterprises
- Outreach Programs
- Aboriginal Owned Businesses
- Environmental Impact
- Community Awareness
- Food Sovereignty and Security

Speakers include:

- Members of White Earth Land Recovery Project (Honor the Earth)
- Rick Block, Joe Munroe (Heifer International)
- Sennait A. Yohannes, Jonah Kilabuk (CINE, McGill University)

Cost: $200 (Full 3-day, includes meals)
$75 (One Day, Th. and F. ONLY, includes meals)
$30 (Student/Senior/Low Income, no meals)
(Limited Subsidies Available upon Request)

To Register Early!! Call 966-5539

For more information contact:

Alex Munoz at 306-966-2027 <alex.munoz@usask.ca>
Priscilla Settee at 306-966-5556 <priscilla.settee@usask.ca>
Indigenous Peoples Program, Extension Division, University of Saskatchewan

www.extension.usask.ca/go/indigenous

Canada

ABORIGINAL EDUCATION RESEARCH CENTRE